Guest of Honour: Ron Keegan, President of MDCC praised Ken Robertson’s massive contribution to cycling and kindly presented the prizes. He found some soulmates from Liverpool and thanked all for their contribution in the event.

Thanks, must also go to Stewart Smith from CTT for all his efforts in making it a smooth running event and to Peter Rogers, CTT Director for the prize presentation.

An extended thanks to Ian Myers who went above and beyond to help a safe running event and to time keep.

Thanks to helpers who were: – Jeremy Ackers, Luke Furley, Jonathan Gale, Chris Noakes, Mike Parker, Nigel Potts, Phil Smith, Mike Gratton (Marshals); Suzanne Sanders, Mrs Baretto, Ruth Rogers (Teas), Chris Baretto, Mike Gratton (Sign on/out); Lynn Marris (rider spotter); Kevin Weymouth (Pusher off); Steve Dummett (bike checker); Will Hornby (Signs).

Apologies if I have missed anyone but as you can see it takes quite a team to run these events.

Thank you to the team at the Headquarters: HQ Modbury Sports Hall, The Queen Elizabeth 11 Recreation Ground, Chatwell Lane, Modbury, Ivybridge PL21 0FS.

Finally thank you to all of you who rode. We have received some great feedback on the event and the course and hope to run other events at Modbury.

Ken Robertson was a legend of the local cycling community after spending 50 years competing in and organising bike races. After joining the Mid Devon Cycling Club in 1957 he became a mainstay of the sport in the South West district, racing and organising many time trials. Alongside other National Committee members in the late 1990s, Ken also organised a series of hilly non-standard distance events, which over time is now known as the Classic Series. The earliest sponsor of these events were Rudy Project which is now the Merlin Cycles.

He was awarded the CTT gold Badge of Honour in 2001, which is only awarded to those who have made a significant contribution to CTT. It is awarded to just a few people and is the highest honour CTT can award.
