Roy Enfield Memorial Open 50 mile time trial

Sunday 12th August 2018

Start time 06:30

Q50/11 course

HQ: Brenzett Village Hall

Roy Enfield, a member of the Medway Wheelers, was part of the wheelers winning team in the prestigious BBAR competition in 1948 and 1949. Ken Joy and Peter Beardsmore were the other two counters, with Beardsmore winning the individual competition in 1948, and Joy, who was champion for four successive years, in 1949.

Roy's widow has maintained contact with the club since Roy's death and recently donated some of his medals and associated memorabilia to the club.

Timekeepers/Recorder – Ernie Mackey (Medway Velo Club), Dave Mackey (Medway Velo Club)

Start holder/Marshals/Sign on – Barbara Kennison, Rob Kennison, Vic Williams, Rodney Kennison, Andrew Collyer, Matt Nunn, Phil Gurnett, Rob Sapp, Tom Knight, Steven Smith, Kieran Lawler and Lee Kingston (all Medway Velo Club).

Having been run by the KCA for several years, 2018 saw the return of the Roy Enfield Memorial 50 to the stewardship of Medway Velo, and Chris Fennell was a worthy winner for the third consecutive year, equalling his own course record. Charmaine Pullen, riding the course for the first time, was first woman, whilst Andy Meliak took the honours in age standard competition as well as taking third in the overall standings. Hopefully others got PB's or course bests.

Thank you to everyone who rode, commiserations to those who suffered punctures on the course, sadly some of the recent wet weather had led to gravel and other associated detritus on the roads of Romney Marsh.

Look forward to seeing you all in the 2019 event, please remember Medway Velo also promote an open ten, the North Downs Hilly, as well as Grass Track racing, and road races. It would be great to see you at some of these events too.
