Ken Joy and Peter Beardsmore were the other two counters, with Beardsmore winning the individual competition in 1948, and Joy, who was champion for four successive years, in 1949.

Timekeepers/Recorder – Ernie Mackey (Medway Velo Club), Dave Mackey (Medway Velo Club)

Start holder/Marshals/Sign on – Rob Kennison, Sean Farley, Nigel Wharton, Rob Hatton, Charlie Bruce, Lee Kingston, Nathan Delaney, John Delaney. Thank you to all of the marshals who volunteered their time, and negotiated overnight closures of various parts of Kent's motorway network to reach the HQ.

The second year of the event since returning to the stewardship of the velo saw a new winner in Nick Fennell, moving up from second place in the previous year. Tracy Wilkinson-Begg was a new winner of the women's event, although a second consecutive victory for the Folkestone Velo Club's women. Despite the stiff breeze blowing across the marsh a number of riders achieved PB's or course bests.

Thank you to everyone who rode, commiserations to those who suffered punctures on the course, sadly some of the recent wet weather had led to gravel and other associated detritus on the roads of Romney Marsh.

Look forward to seeing you all in the 2020 event, please remember Medway Velo also promote an open ten, the North Downs Hilly, as well as Grass Track racing, and road races. It would be great to see you at some of these events too.

Best wishes for the remainder of the season.
