Race Report

The men were the first starters in the event, and the field was lined with talent. Keith Ainsworth (North Midlands Group/Sheffrec CC), last year's silver medallist, was off last man and, without last year's 25-mile champion, Ron Hallam, on the startsheet he was undoubtedly hopefully of trading that silver for a gold. However, Ainsworth found himself up against 52-year-old Richard Oakes (Notts & East Midlands Group/Team Ohten Aveas) whose performance at last year's 10-mile championship was one of the most impressive of the year. This time, it was Oakes who triumphed over the distance with an impressive plus of +17:57 (50:26 on actual) with 62-year-old Ainsworth's 53:44 earning him the silver just 30 seconds adrift on standard (+17:27). Time trialling stalwart, Joseph Costello, was one of a handful of riders who managed to sneak under 55 minutes with his time of 54:58 translating to +16:13.

In the women's championship, Angela Carpenter (Wessex Group/...a3crg) continued her unbeaten streak to win the event with a plus of +20:01 (actual time 54:52). Angela's performance was not only enough to win the women's event by four minutes on standard, but also getting the better of all the men by over two minutes on standard. An outstanding ride which also earns her the Charlie Cole Cup for being the best on standard in the event. The silver medal was a popular local result with Deb Hutson-Lumb (Merseyside Group/Nova Raiders CC) claiming the prize with a plus of +16:03. Deborah Moss (North Lancs & Lakes/Team Merlin) was just 14 seconds in Hutson-Lumb's wake with an impressive +15:49.

The tandem event was won by Ian Greenstreet and Rachael Elliott (London & Home Counties/Newbury Velo) with a plus of +16:38, whilst the ever-impressive Mary Corbett and Norman Harvey (Wessex Group/Sotonia CC) could not quite get to the top step with their tandem trike, but did manage to earn themselves an impressive age record (which is some doing on such an "honest" course as the D25/23T). Well done!

The club team championship was taken by the indomitable Team Ohten Aveas (Derbados) with Richard Oakes, Rob Muzio and Mike Twelves all finishing in the top ten overall and earning the gold medals with a combined plus of +45:25. The group team championship had the rare feature of not being awarded to the home team with Richard Oakes, Ian Guilor and Kevin Wood of Nottingham & East Midlands taking the gold with a combined plus of +47:01.

We would like to thank all riders who rode the event, and offer our sincere thanks to Phil Guy and the Merseyside Group for the top in class organisation – what a joy it was to enjoy tea and cake again post-event! Thanks also go to the VTTA Chairman, Andrew Simpkins, for doing a tremendous amount of work behind the scenes to get his original event transferred so smoothly to the Merseyside Group.
