North Road CC made a special presentation to Andy to mark his hat-trick of wins in their Memorial 50. In 1925 he came in 2nd to the famous W.B. Temme – the only time he was beaten in 3 years of Open events. Another remarkable hat-trick was his 3 wins in the Anfield 100, in 1925 beating the legendary Frank Southall by 13 minutes!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Thanks to the many helpers – All are Members of YCF Affiliated Clubs.

Timekeeper: John Hardy (YRC).

Clerk/Starter: George Barker (Pennine CC).

Walshford TI: Meanwood Wheelers.

Boroughbridge TI: Rotherham Whs/Rockingham CC/YRC

Jackie & Richard Haigh – signage/HQ.

Thanks also to everyone at the Courtyard Café for their hospitality, and to Rabbit Hill for the use of their car-parks.

Not a great day for riding a 50 mile TT – Wind and rain had been forecast which put off a number of riders. Heavy rain just before the start time put off a couple more! As it turned out that was to be the last of the rain for much of the event. Fortunately the course doesn't suffer from heavy traffic and resulting spray. With having a 15 mile circuit, the headwind only came for 7 miles at a time. Everyone who started was to finish - thanks to all those who messaged their apologies.

Congratulations to all the award winners – most prize monies were distributed at the HQ after the event.

Phil.
