Conditions couldn't have got much better for the opening Hill Climb of the WTTA Hill Climb Series.

The women's event saw a competitive turnout with 6 riders entering. It was Nicole Coates who took the top of the podium and matched the course record in a time of 6:10. Jess Railton took second only 7 seconds back with Becky Dodds taking 3rd in a time of 6:32.

An impressive time from Jacob Hardy enabled him to take gold in the juniors in a time of 4:53

After querying the results, it turns out Phil Stonelake will steal the VET's prize from Glyndwr Griffiths in a time of 4:41

The overall was strongly contested with some of the fastest times this event has seen. Josh Coyne showing some excellent season form in a time of 4:41 matching Phil Stonelakes time. Morgan Curle wasn't far ahead in a time of 4:37 whilst Andrew Feather showed off his National title in style breaking his own course record in a time of 4:25.

It was Rogue Racing though that came out in force today showing Bristol South where they stand and took 1st team prize.
