North Road CC made a special presentation to Andy to mark his hat-trick of wins in their Memorial 50. In 1925 he came in 2nd to the famous W.B.Temme – the only time he was beaten in 3 years of Open events. Another remarkable hat-trick was his 3 wins in the Anfield 100, in 1925 beating the legendary Frank Southall by 13 minutes!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Thanks to the many helpers:

Timekeepers: George Barker (Pennine CC) & John Hardy (YRC).

Clerk: Linda Hardy.

Walshford TI - Bramley Wheelers

Kirk Deighton TI – Rotherham Wheelers

Bridge TI - Tony Stott (Yorks VTTA) & Allen Bell (YRC).

Boroughbridge TI – Meanwood Wheelers.

Jackie & Richard Haigh - signage.

All helpers are members of YCF Affiliated Clubs.

Thanks also to everyone at the Courtyard Café for their hospitality, and to Rabbit Hill for the use of their car-parks.

Approaching time of start it looked as if it was going to be a damp afternoon, but by midday the rain had stopped and the road was drying out. The sun made an appearance and it became pleasantly warm (spectating that is, probably somewhat warmer for competitors on the road), wind was mostly light, and variable.

The first 3 riders were inside the course record, relegating previous record holder to 4^{th} place.

Congratulations to all the award winners – all prize monies were distributed at the HQ after the event.

Phil
