MESSAGE FROM THE EVENT SECRETARY GARY JACKSON

Congratulations to Chris Bartley on an excellent winning ride and congratulations also to all prize winners and to those 46 of you who achieved personal bests.

There have been 9 Competition Records set in our event in the last 18 years but with Adam and Steve having set a new Competition Record the previous week we didn't get a new record this year but their 1:32:10 was still faster than the previous record

As you know, the event could not have gone ahead without a team of over 25 marshals and officials who gave up much of their Sunday to ensure a smooth and safe event. Many riders have praised the marshalling and signage and I would like to extend my thanks to all those involved:-

Tim & Becki Groves and Peter Smith (timekeeping); Rob Cheetham (timekeeper's recorder and texting finishing times to HQ); Dave Nock (for sorting out and placing the warning signs at the correct locations and later collecting all the signs); Geoff Fletcher and Derek Brandon (pushing off); Marshals: Tim Stout, Jeremy Petterson, Martin Canes, Laurence Bellamy and Wayne Greve (Four Went Ways) plus Norman Hurrell (checker); Darren Lewis, Jim Poulain, Phil Hodey, Brian Hurrell, Phil & Julie Olson (Red Lodge); Jim and Max Green (Red Lodge Turn). Paul Hirst and Ian Jackson (25 miles time check and texting times to HQ); Dave Nock (traffic count); Alan Clements (signing in and out); Keith West (managing the Results Board); Lynnette Plumb of Nettare (for the excellent catering); Mavis Kinsey (provision of the pristine HQ at Westley Waterless Village Hall).

Thanks also to Keith West for managing the online entries and providing start and result sheets, and keeping everyone informed via our website.

This year the weather was dry and not too hot but that nagging south west breeze (wind?) meant a struggle back from Red Lodge.

Hope to see you next year.

Gary Jackson, Shaftesbury CC TT Sec
