North Road CC made a special presentation to Andy to mark his hat-trick of wins in their Memorial 50. In 1925 he came in 2nd to the famous W.B. Temme – the only time he was beaten in 3 years of Open events. Another remarkable hat-trick was his 3 wins in the Anfield 100, in 1925 beating the legendary Frank Southall by 13 minutes!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Thanks to the many helpers – All are Members of YCF Affiliated Clubs.

Timekeeper: John Hardy (YRC).

Clerk/Starter: George Barker (Pennine CC).

Signs A59/A168 junction: Mike Furby, Valley Striders.

Walshford Tl: Rockingham CC/Rotherham Wheelers.

Boroughbridge Tl: Meanwood Wheelers

Allen Bell (YRC) – signage/HQ.

Thanks also to everyone at the Courtyard Café for their hospitality, and to Rabbit Hill for the use of their car-parks.

Congratulations to the Prize Winners – most of the prize monies were distributed at the HQ. Thanks to Winner, Jack Levick who donated his prize towards the event expenses. He will be receiving an invitation to attend the YCF Luncheon next February to be presented with the Andy Wilson Memorial Trophy.

Not a great day for the event, periods of light rain, with a northerly “breeze” making for tougher conditions on the legs up to Boroughbridge. At least the road didn’t get too wet, drying out in between the rainy spells. Summer hasn’t arrived yet!

Thanks to everyone who messaged their apologies – weather was nowhere near as bad as they were anticipating.

Phil.
